- ▶ Incomplete applications cannot be considered and notification of incompleteness will not be made.
- ▶ To provide anonymity all applicants will be assigned a number with names redacted prior to evaluation process.
- ▶ Due to volume of applications, ANJC will not be providing feedback to those not receiving an award.
- ▶ ANJC reserves the right to publicize award program and to make public those receiving an award less those portions containing budgetary or personally identifiable information.
- ▶ Scholarship award process is supervised and administered by ANJC's Senior Advisory Committee along with their executive director, Dr. Sigmund Miller, and assistant executive director, Diane Philipbar.

Questionnaire

Special Note: In order to provide anonymity to all applicants during the evaluation process, a random number will be assigned to your application. Do not type your name on either page since doing so may void your application. To provide further anonymity, the applicant's current educational institution should not be revealed on this questionnaire since doing so may result in a lower score. All questions require an answer that must be TYPED, not written. Application must be received no later than January 15, 2013.

Please make sure to TYPE your answers for each of the following: (Limit 75 words per question)

1. Why do you want to enter the Chiropractic profession as a career?
2. What experiences have led you to select Chiropractic as your professional field and objective?
3. Briefly define what Chiropractic is to you:
4. Why are you a good candidate to receive this award?
5. Explain the importance of Chiropractic in today's society:
